HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

Before you read another word, pause with me — just for a moment. This book was never meant to merely be read. It is meant to be lived. Have you ever sensed, deep within you, that there was something more?

More of Him. More of His Presence.

Have you ever wondered if there is more in the night that He created us for?

If you have, then you are holding these pages for a reason — for such a time as this.

What you hold in your hands is an invitation. Not to information, but to impartation. Not merely to learn about the night, but to be awakened within it.

What the Lord has waiting for you here is exceedingly, abundantly more than you could ask or imagine.

We will walk this out together, in four movements.

First, we will awaken — to who you truly are, to the hour we are living in, and to why the night matters so deeply to the heart of God.

Then, we will be equipped — clothed in His armor, anchored in His Word, and knit together in His love.

Next, I will share with you what the Lord has done — testimony after testimony of healing released as we learned to weaponize the nighttime for His Glory.

Finally, you will be released — into the new sound He is birthing in the earth, and into the invitation that is waiting for you.

Healing Is Now

As you read, read slowly. Read hungry.

Do not rush past the moments when something begins to stir in you — for those are the very places He is waiting to meet you. When a Scripture arrests you, stop. Sit with Him. Ask Him what He is saying to you, and you alone.

This revelation is not mine to give you. It is His. I am only holding the door open.

You will find prayers and declarations woven throughout these pages, gathered for you at the back of the book, in Appendix A. They are not formulas — they are doorways. Pray them out loud, in the night, alone or as an army, and watch what the Lord will do.

And tonight, when you lie down, lie down with expectancy. The night is His. He made it, and it is good. He does not stop speaking when the sun goes down — so often, that is when He is only beginning.

It is time to awaken.

It is time to dream again with the Lord.

It is time for healing — healing for the past, healing for the now, and healing for the coming.

This is your invitation.

Receive.

INTRODUCTION

For Such a Time — Healing

JEREMIAH 1:5

*“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
And before you were born I consecrated you;
I have appointed you a prophet to the nations.”*

EPHESIANS 6:12

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.

EPHESIANS 6:16

in addition to all, taking up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

Before I was born, my life has been a story and testimony of redemption and healing. From the time I was born, my life has been a testimony of the goodness of God.

This story begins with faith.

This story begins with love.

This story begins with redemption.

Have you ever felt and wondered about your purpose in life?

Since I was a child, I could feel deep purpose. I could feel my purpose; I just didn't understand it yet.

There are times when you can feel deep within you something that is far greater than anything you could ever explain. I was raised in church and brought up in the church. I was saved, asked the Lord to be my personal Lord and Savior, and was water baptized at the age of 6 years old. I was born into a church that was truly planted by the Lord Himself.

I remember stories being told about how the little church in Pittsburg, KS, was founded by a pastor that drove across the United States knowing he would start a church but wouldn't stop his car until he heard the Lord say "stop." That place was Pittsburg, KS, and the man that drove that long drive was a steadfast lover of King Jesus. This man didn't have much money but stopped where God told him to, and he waited. He waited while the Lord would build this church. This church is called Open Door Fellowship.

Another story about this small church I remember is a concrete truck drove down the road, stopped, and came to the pastor and said, "I don't know why, but I am supposed to drop off this leftover concrete here for you to have a parking lot.” This is the kind of church I was born into. I lived in Pittsburg, KS, until I was 2 years old. How I ended up in Pittsburg, KS, is the most beautiful story. If you write about a testimony of the healing and God’s goodness, you must start at the very beginning to explain and show how He has saved, healed, and delivered. When I said my story begins with redemption, it truly does.

There was a very young woman that didn’t have any money and lived in North Carolina near an army base. This young woman became pregnant by a man enlisted in the army at the time, and because she didn’t have any money, she decided to go and stay with her nephew in Pittsburg, KS. The nephew of this very young woman couldn’t provide a place for her to stay, so this young woman went to a very small church that the Lord led her to. This church that was founded by the Lord would be the place where she would meet the Lord.

There was an angel assist program that brought her to the church in Pittsburg, KS, that helped women in situations just like this that had no money but had become pregnant. When she went to this church, they welcomed her and introduced her to the most amazing couple. When this couple met her, they said, "You are welcome to stay with us, and we will take care of you. All that we ask is that you come to church with us." Every Wednesday and Sunday, this young woman would go to church with this couple that took her in and she grew to love the Lord more and more.

It was one Wednesday that this young woman would hear the voice of the Lord so clearly, and He said, "This child is theirs." It was then that she knew she would soon tell them both that this child she carried was meant for them. She didn’t want to give this child up, but she heard the Lord and obeyed. When she gave birth to the baby, she then told both of them what the Lord had spoken to her on that

Wednesday night at church, and immediately they agreed to adopt this little baby girl. What this young girl didn't realize is that when the woman that agreed to adopt this baby was a young girl herself, she had to give up a baby around the same age.

This husband and wife were so excited when they brought home this baby girl. On their way home, they were trying to think of a wonderful name. The wife really loved the name Faith, but there were many people she knew that had the name Faith. Because the Word of God is the wife's favorite book in the entire world, she went to the Word of God, and the Lord led her to Ephesians. Instead of naming this little baby girl Faith, they decided to name her Shield, from Ephesians 6:16 "In addition to all of this, take up the shield of faith with which you can quench the fiery darts of the evil one."

How the Lord chooses to redeem is so beautiful and comes many times in unexpected ways.

For this woman who gave a child for adoption when she was younger, the Lord would bring redemption by her agreement to help a young woman that was much like herself. As a result, the Lord would have an adoption take place of a baby girl that was ordained only by God that brought forth healing for the healing.

This little baby girl named Shield is me. The couple, who took that very young girl in, are my wonderful parents. They are heroes to me, and I love them more than anything. They took me in and adopted me because they heard from the Lord. When they took that young girl in, there were no plans of adoption, only plans to take care of her and help her. Look what God did. He brought healing, redemption, and restoration through obedience.

This story is a foundation of how the Lord is still unfolding the importance of my name. He named me Shield. Through the awakening of why the Lord named me Shield, I have realized that it is truly for the purpose of quenching the fiery darts of the evil one in more ways than one. Not only would I quench the fiery darts of the evil one, but I would also do it with the utmost faith in God. How thankful I am to Him that there is so much in a name and that my mother and father had the courage to adopt me and name me something that would be so true to who I am today. As this story unfolds, you will see how all through my life the meaning and purpose of my name and where it came from is truly foundational.

SHIELD

from Ephesians 6:16

"In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith with which you can quench the fiery darts of the evil one."

This faith that has been instilled in me since birth would proceed to give evidence to so many instances that could only be moments ordained by God. Many times, I would share with my mom of times that healings would occur, miracles would happen, and people would have healing take place through prayers I prayed because of Jesus Christ. As I would grow up, my mother would inform me that when I was a baby after my adoption, a woman prophesied over me and said one word — "Healing."

Over the years I would come to realize that healing looks many ways and has many different meanings when you let the Lord take over. This is a very important thing that I have learned over the years. We must allow the Lord to take over and be fully surrendered to His ways and His will. Laying down our rational thinking and partnering with His thoughts and ways that are higher is everything.

This book is a testimony of the many ways the Lord has shown Himself through healing. One of those ways is through dreaming with Him and redeeming the nighttime. Through redeeming the nighttime, it is where the Lord would awaken me to how important the night is. This book is only the beginning of so many more testimonies of His healings that are to come. When these healings occur, there will be more openness and expectation for Healing for the Healing — “for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

Healing is Now in Jesus name.

PART TWO

Equipped for the Night

“Put on the full armor of God, so that you will be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil.”

EPHESIANS 6:11

CHAPTER THREE

The Armor of God in the Night

The way these armies must operate is unique, beautiful, and straight from the Word of God. The operation involves deep faith in Him. When there is faith in the Lord that all things are possible, we see what was thought to be impossible becomes possible.

EPHESIANS 6:16

in addition to all, taking up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

With everything in me I have immense faith in Jesus Christ and always have. I know that is on purpose. There is purpose in a name. As my name came from Ephesians 6:16, the shield of faith in the Bible, I am a shield wherever I go. In Jesus' name, I quench the fiery darts of the evil one wherever I go. That being said, when forming this army, the fiery darts that came at us multiple times have been quenched because we have the foundation of a shield that is full of faith. As you equip your army and as you read this, know that there is a shield about you. This very book is a threat to the enemy because we are redeeming what the enemy has tried to steal for so long.

We are redeeming the nighttime, our identity, the identity of others, and what we consider “time” to be, altogether. As we redeem these things, we watch as healing flows.

The enemy hates this.

That is why it is critical when we unite in the night as an army, we always put on our full armor — the armor of God. We fall asleep with the full armor of God. This armor found in Ephesians 6 tells us to be completely covered in it.

When we have this armor on, we are called to stand in firm truth and confidence knowing that He (Jesus – who is the armor of God) will protect us against the devil’s schemes. It is again important to remember we do not fight flesh and blood but the powers, principalities, and rulers of darkness. As this is true, Ephesians 6 must be the foundation of protection and equipping in the night.

EPHESIANS 6:10-17

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might. Put on the full armor of God, so that you will be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore, take up the full armor of God, so that you will be able to resist in the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. Stand firm therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; in addition to all, taking up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Our first instruction is to stand firm with the belt of truth buckled around our waist. This is so important to realize that we are to be rooted in truth. When we realize that one of Satan's most effective weapons is lies and deception, we quickly understand the importance of how weaponizing the truth around our waists is essential. We must know the truth. We worship in spirit and in truth and the truth will always set us free.

There will be accusations coming from all directions as weaponizing the nighttime in the spirit realm is embraced. One thing I have realized as I have co-labored with the Lord and embraced the nighttime and the realm of the spirit that He created, lives in, and is explained in depth in the Bible, is that some of those that become most afraid and throw accusations are those that love the Lord. This is not bad by any means; it is because we have forgotten who we are and where we came from. We must remember and awaken. With these accusations, we must be ready by standing firmly in God's truth that is so beautifully buckled around our waist.

As we embrace the truth with the belt, we allow God to guide us to truth — His Truth and Word. So many times, I have not understood things I have dreamed and encountered, yet I have learned to never embrace shame or allow the enemy to speak confusion into my identity. For my identity is in Christ. When I don't understand, I press into Truth (Jesus — the Way, the Truth, and the Life) knowing Whose I am and watch as He leads me to Himself and to all that He wants me to know. Scriptures within His Word will open up to me and within me in new and beautiful ways because I trust Him fully. We must trust Him to lead us.

Thank You, Lord, for Your truth.

We are then instructed to have the breastplate of righteousness in place, which ensures our heart and soul is protected, guarding us from the enemy and the accusations that try to condemn and lead us astray.

If left unguarded, our heart and soul can be attacked allowing the enemy to flood our thoughts, neuronal pathways, and memories to be distorted. The Lord created our heart to house neurites. We often think of the brain as having neurons only, but our heart contains its own complex intrinsic nervous system—often called the "little brain" of the heart. These specialized nerve fibers that branch through cardiac tissue to detect heart rate, pressure, and chemical changes, allowing the heart to learn, remember, and adaptively control its own rhythms.

This is essential to understand because we then understand that the heart does much more than simply pump and circulate blood throughout the body. The sensory neurites and cardiac neurons send more information to the brain, significantly influencing cognitive processes. This affects things like decision making and short- and long-term memory functions. We see that the heart and brain work together.

When the breastplate protects our heart and soul, we will begin to remember our nighttime and what we are doing as we sleep and dream. Furthermore, we will gain an awareness of memories that awaken us to who we are today. How we are created is all ordained-on purpose, for a purpose, by the One who created us.

PART THREE

Weaponizing the Night

"The weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses."

2 CORINTHIANS 10:4

CHAPTER EIGHT

Weaponizing the Nighttime

ACTS 2:17

In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, Your young men will see visions, Your old men will dream dreams. (NIV)

As the Lord releases His wisdom to us like honey, we will weaponize by using what He gives us to ensure the destruction of the powers of darkness. We weaponize by aligning our ways with His ways.

The Lord communicates to us in what we value. I have always valued dreams and felt the Lord in the night. That being said, it is no surprise that the idea of Uniting in the Night and weaponizing the nighttime would be birthed through dreaming with Him.

Forming armies all over the world in the night was created and birthed through dreaming with the Lord. It was through hearing Him in the night through a dream, that the Lord would awaken my body, soul, and spirit to His heart and desire for the Nations. Through these dreams, I could feel His heartbeat over a situation that I didn't fully understand yet but would later come to find out was a blueprint from Heaven.

The Lord would show me how, over time, these armies in the night would operate, conduct a search, and use these dreams for the glory of God. Everything and every way that these armies would operate is a blueprint from Heaven. Most all the equipping is from dreaming with the Lord in the night. He is equipping us all to truly utilize the nighttime and use what He created to bring healing. This dream that I had in 2020 would be the beginning of how I knew the Lord was awakening the way the night was used in a new way, allowing blueprints to be formed.

We can encounter the Living God in a dream in such a way that our DNA is changed within us. What I mean by that is that how we see ourselves, how we function, how we see others, and how we live our lives can forever be aligned to who He is. When we allow the Lord to take over through surrender, He transforms us. This transformation allows us to go from glory to glory. As we go from glory to glory, we are never the same.

2 CORINTHIANS 3:18

But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

I have always been a dreamer. In the night as I lay in my bed as a child, I could feel the Lord so deeply that all I could do was just weep knowing I was with the Lord. These tears that flowed as a child would be felt at an accelerated rate as I got older, especially in the year 2020.

In the year 2020, I could feel 2 Corinthians 3:18 deep within me. I could feel the change, the shift, and the desire within me to be more and more like Jesus. It is so true that as we go from glory to glory, we will never be the same. This transformation of going from glory to glory is not an easy journey and not always well understood by people. That is okay and must be okay as you pick up your cross and follow Jesus. It is a journey of yielding, surrender, trust, and laying down what you once knew for the One. When you feel the Lord deeper and deeper and all you want is Him, He begins to speak to you more clearly. This is how I began hearing the Lord in the night and knew I would never be the same. As I would sleep, I would not just have dreams, but I would hear the Lord's voice. I could feel Him and every breath in me wanted more of Him.

In 2020, I began having dreams so clearly that I had a hard time knowing if I was awake or if I was asleep. The first dream that I had that was so deeply filled with the Presence of the Lord was a dream that would change my life forever. This dream that the Lord gave me was a dream that caused me to wake up with such fear of the Lord that I will never be the same.

C THE DREAM

In this dream I was taken back in time to the story of Exodus. In that moment I didn't fully understand why I felt the immense impact of this dream like I did, I only knew I was willing to find out why.

PROVERBS 25:2

It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, But the glory of kings is to search out a matter.

This is the beginning of how I knew that my life was meant for something more. This dream was a gift from the Lord, showing me my future, and I didn't even understand it at the time. Much like Joseph in Genesis when he saw his future, I would see my future in the night. All from a dream in the night with the Lord, I could feel purpose — my purpose. I could feel the purpose of many. This dream changed the way I saw Jesus and the way I saw my future.

Like many dreams I have with the Lord, I was looking from a high perspective with the Lord. He was telling me to look down. As I looked down, I was taken back in time to see the Israelites cross the Red Sea and be led to freedom. In this dream I was with Jesus at an aerial viewpoint looking down and I saw Pharaoh, Moses, Israelites, Egyptians, chariots, and horses, all crossing the Red Sea. What was among them is what made this dream so impactful. I looked and among all of them were millions and millions of people all over the world, all ages, all ethnicities and nationalities.

I watched with Jesus high in the air and looked at Him showing me what my future would be like as I helped lead these people to freedom across the Red Sea. These people of all races, nationalities, and ages were people of the past, present, and future. I could see the Lord showing freedom, restoration, and redemption all in one dream. It was bigger than a crossing of the Red Sea. I could feel what I was seeing, and it held time. In this was so many souls that needed set free, all past, present, and future.

END OF DREAM

What I didn't understand about this dream in the moment as I woke up weeping, is that I was feeling these people. I had no idea why I was weeping as I watched these millions upon millions of people cross the Red Sea; I only knew I felt the Lord's heartbeat, and I felt Him breathe His time on my heart. His time is beyond earthly time. His heart was my heart, and my heart was His heart. It was as if through this dream I felt the past, present, and future.

I could feel healing for the past, healing for the now, and healing for the coming.

This is what I love about dreams. You can truly feel and know purpose and feel the Lord on something He shows yet not fully understand it at all yet. Everything is spoken in His time and His way. We must trust Him to reveal and be kings and search it all out with Him.

Over and over, I heard a song He gave me in the night:

*"May Your sounds from the grounds cry out.
May new sounds be found in the Nations.
May the lands all decree, that You heal and set free,
May new sounds be found in the Nations."*

When the Lord awakens you to your purpose, there is nothing that can separate you from what He speaks. There is a knowing within you that all things are possible through Christ who gives you strength because He is the author and finisher of our faith. If He speaks it — He will finish it.

PHILIPPIANS 1:6

For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus.

Many more dreams would come to me like manna in the night, allowing me to trust and yield to the Father's voice.

It was in August of 2022 I would have yet another dream from the Lord that would change the trajectory of my life in the most unexpected way I could have imagined. Through this dream I would be awakened to the fact that my life would never be the same. This dream is also how the Lord would connect the dream I had about people being set free as they crossed the Red Sea.

The dream in 2022 is how I became aware that armies are needed in the world to unite in the night and how the weaponizing of them would be birthed.

Through years of dreaming with the Lord and understanding what He speaks as I dream and not just when I awake, there has been a deeper trust with the Lord that I began to experience. This dream that would change my life forever involved more trust than I could ever imagine. With everything I am — I trust the Lord. If I feel His breath on a dream, vision, or encounter, I am completely at peace and allow Him to use me and utilize everything I am. This dream was one of those times. I still remember like it was yesterday.

C THE DREAM

I dreamt that I was, once again, with the Lord, looking from an aerial perspective. The Lord had me look down and I saw a woman running. I saw that this woman had on purple shorts; she had blonde hair and was wearing a tank top. I looked around her and saw the neighborhood she was running in and saw an SUV. Then the Lord picked me up from there and showed me many dead bodies and their bones buried underground. After I saw this the Lord took me back to the blonde woman who had been running, but now I saw that she had been murdered. I saw the area, the body, the SUV, and the neighborhood.

END OF DREAM

After seeing all of this I woke up from this dream weeping. While I knew the Lord was with me — because He never leaves us, I was in complete shock.

For about a month I prayed over and over and asked the Lord why He would show me such a deep, important, and heavy thing. Then, a month later in September, I would come to find out why.

EXCERPT ENDS

The story continues in the full book.

PART FOUR

The New Sound & the Invitation

"The Spirit and the bride say, 'Come.' Let the one who is thirsty come."

REVELATION 22:17

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

The New Sound

The sound of the walls of the church being rebuilt with purity, truth, and honor. (Nehemiah 4:6)

The sound of the grounds crying out that allow the rivers to flow freely in unity. (Revelation 22:1-5)

The sound of creation rejoicing as His Bride celebrates Yahweh in one accord (Luke 19:40)

Can you hear it?

It is time for the new sounds.

The sounds that carry frequencies from Heaven allowing healing to flow.

No matter what it looks like, or how different it may be — release your new sounds!

Many times, people will ask me how I can remain at peace and joy when I see and encounter such heavy things in the night with the Lord. I respond by asking if they have ever released a sound of true and pure worship. There is a new sound of worship that creates the deepest shalom peace within you that causes everything to align and birth clarity. This can even be done in the night as you sleep with Him. This new sound can ignite an atmosphere allowing for freedom to take place. This new sound is a sound of the heavenly realm colliding with the earth to awaken dry bones to His voice allowing healing to take place.

Scripture reveals in John 11:33 that Jesus groaned within Himself.

JOHN 11:33-44

When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit and was troubled. And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept. Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died? Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days. Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me. And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go. (KJV)

What did this groaning ignite in the atmosphere? This groaning caused a collision in the spirit that awakened dry bones to come alive in Jesus' name. I would like to propose that this groaning was the catalyst that would awaken the atmosphere and all that were in it to receive what was taking place which was the dead coming alive!

C T H E D R E A M

On September 12, 2024, I had a dream, and I saw many holding their stomachs and groaning. As they groaned the grounds all over the earth began to vibrate. I looked again and then saw these people holding their stomachs only this time they bellowed and groaned as if calling forth what they felt in the grounds. This bellowing and groaning was to awaken and to birth. Those holding their stomachs could no longer hold in what needed to be released in the earth. Upon the cries of bellowing and groaning the earth vibrated and rumbled with such intensity that the grounds split open and erupted. The earth and those attuned to His voice began singing a new song that broke forth a new sound. Rivers began to flow that once did not. These rivers then began to flow in one accord. I could feel these rivers and the earth. I could feel the memories and the time that they held. I could feel the power that was now flowing from deep within as the bellows erupted a sound that was dormant for so long.

E N D O F D R E A M

Many times, when I worship, the Lord will allow me to see what He sees and take me outside of this world with Him. Many times, when I worship, I will bellow so deeply that it sounds like a shofar that the Lord has placed within me.

I can feel the new sound from the Heavens flow. I can see the thin veil before my face as I worship the King of Kings in spirit and in truth. This sound is different, and few are willing to release it for it brings something that causes the atmosphere to shift. May we be those that are brave enough to release this new sound. May we be those that will allow the fear of man to fall off us in order to cause the atmosphere to shift and be healed in Jesus' name.

Give us courage, Lord, to birth the new sound.
